PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a summons.

On January 18, 2023, an officer with the U.S. Probation Office in Spokane, Washington, reviewed a copy of the conditions of supervision with Mr. Jennen, as outlined in the judgment and sentence. He signed the judgment acknowledging the requirements.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

1	Special Condition #3: You must abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and must submit to urinalysis and sweat patch testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.
---	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged Mr. Jennen violated his conditions of supervised release by failing to appear for random urinalysis testing at Alcohol Drug Education Prevention and Treatment (ADEPT) as directed on July 14, 2025.

On July 15, 2025, staff at ADEPT notified the undersigned that Mr. Jennen failed to appear for random urinalysis testing on July 14, 2025, as directed. When this was discussed with Mr. Jennen, he admitted to not showing up for his random urinalysis test because he had used controlled substances the day prior.

2 Special Condition #3: You must abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and must submit to urinalysis and sweat patch testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged Mr. Jennen violated his conditions of supervised release by using a controlled substance, methamphetamine, on July 13, and 15, 2025.

On July 16, 2025, Mr. Jennen reported to the probation office to submit to urinalysis testing. Prior to giving a sample, Mr. Jennen admitted to using methamphetamine on two occasions, July 13, and 15, and signed an admission form.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a summons requiring the offender to appear to answer to the allegation(s) contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
